THE DAILY PROGRESS.

VOL. IV. RALEIGH, N. C., JANUARY 19, 1863. NO. 61.

[illegible]

Charles A. Buckalew (Democrat) has been chosen Senator from Pennsylvania [illegible] Wilmot. Cameron was his competitor for the position. He was beaten by one vote.

PEACE PROPOSITION.

The Legislature of New Jersey [illegible] on the 13th instant, [illegible] resolutions similar to those proposed by Brooks, of New York, a short time since, and published in the Examiner, were introduced and made the order of the day for the 22d of January. The resolutions propose an armistice of six months, [illegible] Congressional district to elect one delegate to meet at [illegible] on the second Monday of the ensuing month, to arrange terms for an amicable adjustment of the difficulties between the two sections.

On the evening of the 13th both Houses of the Legislature paid their respects to Gen. McClellan, who was in Trenton.

Colonel James W. Wall, of Burlington, has been nominated by the Legislature of New Jersey for the United States Senate.

YANKEE FINANCES—CAN'T PAY THE SOLDIERS.

Chase says the soldiers have not been paid because he was not authorized to raise money by practicable methods under the existing laws. He says that the arrears to the army [illegible] the sum he is authorized to raise under the existing act.

ON TO RICHMOND.

The correspondent of the Herald, writing from the Army of the Potomac, says: Preparations and orders which always precede a movement, indicate that a very few days will find us in motion, and, as he hopes and expects, in the direction of Richmond.

THE HARRIET LANE.

The New York Herald treats the capture of the Harriet Lane and the [illegible] of officers as a matter of [illegible] consequence, that if she be not already at sea, she will very soon be set forth to commit depredations on our commerce on the high seas, as the Alabama has so long been doing, and for all that we might expect from the blunders of the Navy Department, [illegible] will [illegible] be permitted to do.

Lyman Beecher, father of Harriet Beecher Stowe, died in Brooklyn last Saturday.

LATEST FROM EUROPE.

[illegible]

The London Times says the result of the battle of Fredericksburg confirms the universal belief that the Confederates are fully able to maintain their independence.

Other European journals suggest that the battle may be made the [illegible] for mediation and compromise.

La France says after the battle Lincoln had a long interview with the French Minister and peace party, and thinks this betokens a desire for conciliation.

The London Times has another article in denunciation of Beast Butler, and demands his removal.

KENTUCKY LEGISLATURE—MESSAGE OF GOV. ROBINSON.

FRANKFORT, Jan. 8.—The Legislature of this State assembled to-day, and the message of the Governor was read.

Governor Robinson recommends that Kentucky reject the President's proclamation, and protest against any interference with her slave policy as unwarranted by the Constitution. He thinks the proclamation giving freedom to the slaves in the rebellious States inflicts upon Kentucky a fatal though indirect blow.

He says the saddest fact of the proclamation will be to fire the whole South into one burning mass of [illegible] hate, destroying all hopes of restoring the Union, which is only possible by adhering to the Constitution as it was.

He further says that the most alarming aspect of the proclamation is the usurpation of the powers of the Government by the President, under the plea of military necessity. He advises the Legislature to place on record their protest against the proclamation.

The notorious Yelverton marriage case has been brought to a conclusion in Edinburgh, the decision being in favor of Mrs. Yelverton. Lords Churchill and Deas were of opinion that the marriage was established according to the law of Scotland.

We asked a [illegible] the other day if he had the [illegible]. "No," he said with a [illegible] shake of the head, "[illegible] it's the same old [illegible]."

[illegible] the Yankee [illegible] at Holly Springs [illegible] from an eye witness says:

[illegible]

$1,000,000 worth of medical stores, [illegible]

[illegible] the largest buildings on the public square.

While the capture of the camp, paroling of the prisoners and destroying the stores were going on, the Texas Rangers, comprising the 9th 6th and 3d legions, became engaged with the Michigan Cavalry, and drove them pell-mell through town and ran them off north with a considerable loss to the Abolitionists, and a loss of thirty in killed and wounded on our part.

The ladies rushed out from the houses, wild with joy, crying out, "There's some at the Fair Grounds—Chase them, kill them, for God's sake!" One lady said: "The Yankee Commandant of the Post is in my house; come and catch him," and a search was instigated, but without success. When the noble woman insisted that he was there, concealed; and finally after much ado, the gallant (save the mark!) Colonel Murphy, the intrepid Yankee Commandant of Holly Springs, was pulled out from under his bed, and presented himself in his nocturnal habiliments to his captors.

THE FLORIDA.—Referring to the statement of the New York Herald, that this Confederate steamer had succeeded in running the blockade at Mobile and getting to sea, the Richmond Dispatch remarks:

We take it for granted that she now has her full armament, and that Capt. Maffitt, restored to health, is still in command. Assuming these to be the facts, and bearing in mind the further fact that the Florida is one of the fastest and finest vessels that has ever been afloat, we congratulate the New York Board of Commerce on the bright prospect that is ahead for their merchantmen. Well may the New York Herald exclaim, that another scourge of the deep is let loose. We shall be greatly disappointed if Capt. Maffitt does not realize the worst apprehensions of the Yankees. He was one of the most intelligent and enterprising officers of the old navy, chivalric and ardent, bold and energetic, a master of his profession, and as brave as Lord Nelson. We shall hear from him soon, and if it is his luck to encounter one of the enemy's cruisers, unless greatly overmatched in weight of metal and men, he will win brilliant laurels for himself and his country.

This compliment to Capt. Maffitt is well deserved. He is just the man to run the brilliant career which has made the names of Semmes and the "Alabama" historical. We hope soon to hear that he has begun the work of lighting up the ocean with the blazing ships of our ruthless and unpitying enemies. We have shared with many others in wonder that his gallant feat in safely running the Florida into this port, with himself and crew all down with the yellow fever, has not been acknowledged by promotion from Richmond.

GEN. POLK COMPLIMENTS OUR TROOPS.—The Asheville News of the 15th says:

"Lieut. Gen. Leonidas Polk, who participated in the great battle at Murfreesboro' is now in town, on a visit to his family. He speaks in glowing terms of the gallantry of the three North Carolina regiments in that bloody engagement, viz: the 29th, Col. Vance; the 39th, Col. Coleman; and the 60th, Col. McDowell. He says they fought like veterans."

FOREIGN POWERS.—Seward says the Yankee government has never, since the war began, stood so well with foreign powers as now. He must allude to its relations with the Prince of the power of the air, with whom he and the Baboon are doubtless hand in glove. It is the infernal trinity of the Apocalypse; the Beast, the False Prophet and the Devil.

McClellan is a Scotchman, Buell was born in Florida, and Rosecrans in Randolph county, Virginia. The North has not and cannot produce a great General. We are not sure that McClellan was born in Philadelphia, where his parents settled on their advent into America. Was he born in America?

IN DISTRESS.—The New South a Yankee paper published at Hilton Head, reports the arrival there of a number of vessels of the Banks expedition, in distress. A number of them were surveyed and condemned as unseaworthy, and the troops transferred to other vessels.—Savannah Repub.

"Do you believe in a hell?" asked one railroad man of another by way of reproof for some piece of irreverence. "Yes, I do," was the answer, "but they are not receiving freight on this line now; all their rolling stock has been ordered to Fredericksburg and Murfreesboro'."

Miss Hattie Cary, of Baltimore, is under arrest in Baltimore, for planting a Confederate flag in the presence of a New York regiment drilling in front of her father's residence.

The great Suez canal, which is being cut through the isthmus, to connect the Mediterranean with the Red Sea, will be 94 miles in length, [illegible] feet in width, and 26 feet deep.

General C. F. Henningsen, late a colonel of the Wise Legion, has resigned his commission, believing that self-respect required it. The reason alleged that he has been "overslaughed."

Young ladies who are accustomed to read good newspapers are always observed to possess more amiable dispositions, invariably make good wives, and always select good husbands.

GENERAL ORDERS, No. 82.

Commandants of conscripts will cause the following order to be published for at least seven times in a sufficient number of newspapers in each State of the Confederacy to ensure its reaching every part of the country.

II. Commissioned officers failing to comply with the provisions of the foregoing paragraph within a reasonable length of time, in no case to exceed twenty days after the publication of this order, shall be dropped from the rolls of the army in disgrace, and their names will be furnished to the commandant of conscripts for enlistment in the ranks.

V. Under the provisions of the 2d clause of paragraph I. of General Orders No. 82 commissioned officers and privates who are incapable of bearing arms in consequence of wounds received in battle, but who are otherwise fit for service, are required, if not otherwise assigned to report to the nearest commandant of conscripts in their respective States who will, if they are fitted for such duty, assign them to the collection of stragglers and the enforcement of the provisions of this order, with full power to call upon the nearest military authority for such assistance as may be necessary thereto.

FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD.

RUNAWAY FROM THE UNDERSIGNED, ON THE 25th December, a negro boy named ANDERSON, about twenty-five years old, perfectly black—heavy set, and weight from 175 to 190 pounds when he left.—He has been hand-cuffed. Said boy is supposed to have been raised by Mr. Lewis, of Sampson county, N. C.—When he left he had on a blue jacket and white pants, very ragged; has good teeth and speaks freely. I bought him of Mr. L. P. Robinson, of Augusta, Ga., on the 15th instant, and was on my way to Richmond, Va., and had to lay over in Raleigh on account of not being able to get passage. I was camped by the side of the Railroad track. He left about dark.

I will pay the above reward to any person who will deliver said boy to any jail for safe-keeping so that I can get him. Any information will be thankfully received.

THE AFFAIR IN MADISON COUNTY.

The Asheville News of the 15th says:

"The militia of this county assembled here on Tuesday last, by order of the commanding officer. They were properly disposed, to meet the enemy who are threatening this section. This enemy comes not in the shape of Northern soldiers, but in the shape of disloyal men from Tennessee and our own State. A force of about one hundred [illegible] Marshall, twenty miles north of this, one day last week, and sacked the place. They are threatening to pay Asheville a visit, and have been [illegible] for several days. A similar condition of affairs [illegible] and Mitchell counties, [illegible] occupying an official position [illegible] who would have to [illegible]

Movements are on foot which it is hoped will restore order and security to this distracted country, and which will be fully known in due time."

In the Knoxville Register of the 13th we find the following relative to the Madison outrage:

On Thursday night, 8th inst., a band of tories from the mountains of East Tennessee and Laurel, N. C. attacked the village of Marshall, Madison Co., N. C. taking the citizens prisoners, and robbing the whole town of whatever valuables [illegible]. They entered the dwelling of Col. Allen, of the 64th N. C. Regiment, (now in this city,) and with axes broke open doors, chests, drawers, &c., and carried off all the money, clothing and other valuables in the [illegible] general stores, [illegible] and after committing many other [illegible] with the threat that they [illegible] Armory at Ashville, which they [illegible] burn. They vowed that Gen. Polk, who is now on a visit to his family at Asheville, should never return by that route.

Capt. Peek, of the 64th, who was in Marshall, having his right arm shattered by a musket ball.

On their return to the mountains they ravaged the whole country.

For these facts we are indebted to Dr. Thompson and Lieut-Colonel Keith, of the 64th, who have just returned to this city.

Western North Carolina being in this military department, the State of North Carolina [illegible]. It is therefore to be hoped that the military authorities here, or the Government at Richmond, will take some effective steps [illegible] the mountains, and give security [illegible]. Let them be caught and hanged [illegible] force kept in the mountains to preserve the lives and property of loyal citizens.

Since the above was in type, we learn that Col. Allen, with a detachment of [illegible] hundred men and muskets, and ammunition enough to arm such of the citizens as are disposed to defend their homes, has been detailed by the commanding General, to proceed to the scene of the outrage above set forth, protect the country, and bring the bandits to justice.

MONTGOMERY COUNTY.—The Wadesboro Argus says—

"We stated last week, that we had been informed that there were certain people in Montgomery county in favor of reconstruction, and that [illegible] certain would-be prominent [illegible] on the subject. To our utter astonishment, we [illegible] public sentiment [illegible] Dockery, and O. H. Dockery, [illegible] we are authorized to say [illegible] this respect, is entirely erroneous."

THE SECOND CONSCRIPTION.—On Saturday, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, there was a pretty full turn out of the 71st Regiment in this county, for enrollment, and everything passed off quietly. No day was appointed for the departure of the conscripts.
